Dear Parishoners of Christ the King,

As I reflect on my first year of seminary, I am so grateful for your support and prayers. Mount Angel seminary is located next to a Benedictine Abbey and many of our teachers are Benedictine priests and monks.

This year was focused on prayer, discernment, and growth in virtue. My days began with holy hour and Mass. We had classes in the mornings and conferences about spiritual topics in the afternoons.

I will be assigned to a parish somewhere in our diocese this summer. I also plan to come back and visit Christ the King.

Please continue to pray for me. I pray for you daily.

Blessings,

Stephen Lauer, Pueblo Seminarian from Christ the King
